

Taiwan Occupational Therapy Association (TOTA)
2026 Site Visit to Psychiatric Rehabilitation at Tsao-Tun Psychiatric Center,
Ministry of Health and Welfare

- Organizer: Taiwan Occupational Therapy Association (TOTA)
- Co-organizers: Tsao-Tun Psychiatric Center, Ministry of Health and Welfare
- Language: English
- Event Description:

Tsao-Tun Psychiatric Center, Ministry of Health and Welfare, has long been dedicated to psychiatric care, rehabilitation, and addiction treatment. Occupational therapy services focus on enhancing daily functioning, occupational participation, recovery, and community reintegration across diverse service populations.

This site visit will introduce the Center's distinctive Five-Stage Occupational Rehabilitation Model, which provides staged and individualized interventions based on clients' functional abilities, motivation, responsibility, and social participation. Participants will also visit Jia-Lao Village, a therapeutic community for individuals with substance use disorders, to learn about structured daily living, group participation, meaningful occupations, and recovery support.

Through on-site observation and professional exchange, this program aims to broaden international perspectives on psychiatric rehabilitation and addiction treatment, promote mutual learning among occupational therapy professionals, and strengthen future collaboration in recovery-oriented practice and community reintegration.
